

5. Storing, Backups and other HMIS technical requirements

Store the Intake Forms on your computer so you can locate them easily. The back up copies and the back up software, such as a CD-ROM, zip drive or pen drive, should be stored in a separate location in case of fire or theft. Any good back up software should automatically make copies. If it doesn't it's not acceptable back up software.