

Don't staple the pages of this application together!

1. Some providers scan the application, and if you staple, that means removing staples from 1000 applications every week or month.
2. If you include a letter, don't staple that either: providers need to quickly get to your waitlist data and your cover page just gets in the way.

Use #10 double window envelopes. Fold on the line, and addresses will fit in the windows.

Warning: Section 1001 of Title 8 of the U.S. Code makes it a criminal offense to make willful false statements of misrepresentation to any Department or Agency of the U.S. as to any matter within its jurisdiction. It is a criminal offense to willfully make a false statement on this rental application.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

State and Federal laws require housing providers to make reasonable accommodations or changes to either the apartment, other parts of the housing complex or to house rules, policies and procedures if such changes are necessary to enable a person with a disability to have equal access to an enjoyment of the apartment and other facilities or programs at the site. Please note that such changes must be necessary for the person to have equal access and enjoyment of the housing and programs, not just desirable.

If you have a disability and you need. . . .

- a change in the rules or policies, or how we do things, that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- a change or repair in your apartment or a special type of apartment that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs,
- a change or repair to some other part of the housing site that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in the programs listed, or
- a change in the way we communicate with you or give you information you can ask for this kind of change, which is called a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION.

If you can show that you have a disability and if you request is reasonable, if it is not too expense and if it is not too difficult to arrange, we will try to make the changes you request.

We will let you know if we need more information or verification from you, or if we would like to talk to you about other ways to meet your needs.

If we turn down your request, we will explain the reasons and you can give us more information if you think that will help

If you need help filling out a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION REQUEST FORM or if you want to give us your request in some other way, we will help you.

HUD Fact Sheet

Verification of Information Provided by Applicants and Tenants of Assisted Housing

What Verification Involves

To receive housing assistance, applicants and tenants who are 18 and over must provide the Housing Owner with certain information specified by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

To make sure that the assistance is used properly, Federal laws require that the information you provide be verified. This information is verified in two ways:

1. HUD and a Public Housing Agency (PHA) may verify the information you provide by checking with the records kept by certain public agencies (IRS, Social Security Administration, and the State agency that keeps wage and unemployment compensation claim information).

You give your consent to the release of this information by signing form HUD-9887.

Only HUD and the PHA can receive information authorized by this form.

2. The Owner must verify the information that is used to determine your eligibility and the amount of rent you pay.

You give your consent to the release of this information by signing the form HUD-9887-A and the individual verification and consent forms that apply to you. Federal laws limit the kinds of information the Owner can receive about you.

Example: The amount of income you receive helps to determine the amount of rent you will pay. The owner will verify all of the sources of income that you report.

Example: There are certain allowances that reduce the income used in determining tenant rents. Mrs. Anderson is 62 years old. Her age qualifies her for a medical allowance. Her annual income will be adjusted because of this allowance. Because Mrs. Anderson's medical expenses will help determine the amount of rent she pays, the owner is required to verify any medical expenses that she reports.

Example: Mr. Harris does not qualify for the medical allowance because he is not at least 62 years of age and he is not handicapped or disabled. Because he is not eligible for the medical allowance, the amount of his medical expenses does not change the amount of rent he pays. Therefore, the owner cannot ask Mr. Harris anything about his medical expenses and cannot verify with a third party about any medical expenses he has.

Customer Protections

Information received by HUD is protected by the Federal Privacy Act. Information received by the PHA or the Owner is subject to State privacy laws. Employees of HUD, the PHA, and the Owner are subject to penalties for using these consent forms improperly.

You do not have to sign the form HUD-9887 or the individual verification consent forms when they are given to you at your certification or recertification interview. You may take them home with you to read or to discuss with a third party of your choice. The Owner will give you another date when you can return to sign these forms.

If you cannot read and/or sign a consent form due to a disability, the Owner shall make a reasonable accommodation in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Such accommodations may include: home visits when the applicant's or tenant's disability prevents him/her from coming to the office to complete the forms; the applicant or tenant authorizing another person to sign on his/her behalf; and for persons with visual impairments, accommodations may include providing the forms in large script or braille or providing readers.

If an adult member of your household, due to extenuating circumstances, is unable to sign the form HUD-9887 or the individual verification forms on time, the Owner may document the file as to the reason for the delay and the specific plans to obtain the proper signature as soon as possible.

The Owner must tell you, or a third party which you choose, of the findings made as a result of the Owner verifications authorized by your consent. The Owner must give you the opportunity to contest such findings in accordance with HUD Handbook 4350.3. However, for information received under the form HUD-9887, HUD, the PHA, or the Owner may inform you of these findings.

Owners must keep tenant files in a location that ensures confidentiality.

Any employee of the Owner who fails to keep tenant information confidential is subject to the enforcement provisions of the State Privacy Act and is subject to enforcement actions by HUD. Also, any applicant or tenant affected by negligent disclosure or improper use of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the employee.

HUD requires the Owner to give each household a copy of the Fact Sheet, and forms HUD-9887, HUD-9887-A along with appropriate individual consent forms. The package you will receive will include the following documents:

1. HUD Fact Sheet: Describes the requirement to verify information provided by individuals who apply for housing assistance. The fact sheet also describes consumer protections under the verification process.
2. Form HUD-9887: Allows the release of information between government agencies.
3. Form HUD-9887-A: Describes the requirement of third party verification along with consumer protections.
4. Individual verification consents: Used to verify the relevant information provided by applicants/tenants to determine their eligibility and level of benefits.

Consequences for Not Signing the Consent Forms

If you fail to sign the form HUD-9887, the form HUD-9887-A, or the individual verification forms, this may result in your assistance being denied (for applicants) or your assistance being terminated (for tenants). See further explanation on the forms HUD-9887 and 9887-A.

If you are an applicant and are denied assistance for this reason, the Owner must notify you of the reason for your rejection and give you an opportunity to appeal the decision.

If you are a tenant and your assistance is terminated for this reason, the Owner must follow the procedures set out in the Lease. This includes the opportunity for you to meet with the Owner. See paragraph 17 of your Lease.

Notice To Tenant: Do not sign this form if the space above for organizations requesting release of information is left blank. You do not have to sign this form when it is given to you. You may take the form home with you to read or discuss with a third party of your choice and return to sign the consent on a date you have worked out with the housing owner/manager.

Authority: Section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988, as amended by section 903 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 and section 3003 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. This law is found at 42 U.S.C. 3544.

This law requires you to sign a consent form authorizing: (1) HUD and the PHA to request wage and unemployment compensation claim information from the state agency responsible for keeping that information; and (2) HUD to request certain tax return information from the U.S. Social Security Administration and the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

Purpose: In signing this consent form, you are authorizing HUD and the above-named PHA to request income information from the government agencies listed on the form. HUD and the PHA need this information to verify your household's income, in order to ensure that you are eligible for assisted housing benefits and that these benefits are set at the correct level. HUD and the PHA may participate in computer matching programs with these sources to verify your eligibility and level of benefits. This form also authorizes HUD and the PHA to seek wage and income information from current or former employers to verify information obtained through computer matching.

Uses of Information to be Obtained: HUD is required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The PHA is also required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with any applicable State privacy law. After receiving the information covered by this notice of consent, HUD and the PHA may inform the owner that your eligibility for or level of assistance is uncertain and needs to be verified and nothing else.

HUD and PHA employees may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper uses of the income information that is obtained based on the consent form. Private owners may not request or receive information authorized by this form.

Who Must Sign the Consent Form: Each member of your household who is 18 years of age or older must sign the consent form at the initial certification and at each recertification. Additional signatures must be obtained from new adult members when they join the household or when members of the household become 18 years of age.

Persons who apply for or receive assistance under the following programs are required to sign this consent form:

Rental Assistance Program (RAP)

Rent Supplement

Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Programs (administered by the Office of Housing)

Section 202; Sections 202 and 811 PRAC; Section 202/162 PAC

Section 236

HOPE 2 Homeownership of Multifamily Units

Failure to Sign Consent Form: Your failure to sign the consent form may result in the denial of assistance or termination of assisted housing benefits. If an applicant is denied assistance for this reason, the owner must follow the notification procedures in Handbook 4350.3. If a tenant is denied assistance for this reason, the owner must follow the procedures set out in the lease.

Consent: I consent to allow HUD or the PHA to request and obtain income information from the public agencies listed on the back of this form for the purpose of verifying my eligibility and level of benefits under HUD's assisted housing programs.

I understand that income information obtained from these sources will be used to verify information that I provide in determining initial or continued eligibility for assisted housing programs and the level of benefits.

No action can be taken to terminate, deny, suspend or reduce the assistance your household receives based on information obtained about you under this consent until the HUD Office or the PHA (whichever is applicable) and the owner (as required by HUD or the PHA), have independently verified: 1) the amount of the income, wages, or unemployment compensation involved, 2) whether you actually have (or had) access to such income, wages, or benefits for your own use, and 3) the period or periods when, or with respect to which you actually received such income, wages, or benefits. A photocopy of the signed consent may be used to request a third party to verify any information received under this consent (e.g., employer).

HUD, the PHA or the owner shall inform you, or a third party which you designate, of the findings made on the basis of information verified under this consent and shall give you an opportunity to contest such findings in accordance with Handbook 4350.3.

If an adult member of the household, due to extenuating circumstances, is unable to sign the form on time, the owner may document the file as to the reason for the delay and the specific plans to obtain the proper signature as soon as possible.

This consent form expires 15 months after signed.

Privacy Act Statement. The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is authorized to collect this information by the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1437 et. seq.); the Housing and Urban-rural Recovery Act of 1983 (P.L. 98-181); the Housing and Community Development Technical Amendments of 1984 (P.L. 98-479); and by the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987 (42 U.S.C. 3543). The information is being collected by HUD to determine an applicant's eligibility, the recommended unit size, and the amount the tenant(s) must pay toward rent and utilities. HUD uses this information to assist in managing certain HUD properties, to protect the Government's financial interest, and to verify the accuracy of the information furnished. HUD or a Public Housing Authority (PHA) may conduct a computer match to verify the information you provide. This information may be released to appropriate Federal, State, and local agencies, when relevant, and to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigators and prosecutors. However, the information will not be otherwise disclosed or released outside of HUD, except as permitted or required by law. You must provide all of the information requested. Failure to provide any information may result in a delay or rejection of your eligibility approval.

Penalties for Misusing this Consent:

HUD, the PHA and any Owner (or any employee of HUD, the PHA or the Owner) may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper uses of information collected based on the consent form.

Use of the information collected based on the form HUD 9887 is restricted to the purposes cited on the form HUD 9887. Any person who knowingly or willfully requests, obtains or discloses any information under false pretenses concerning an applicant or tenant may be subject to a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000.

Any applicant or tenant affected by negligent disclosure of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the officer or employee of HUD, the PHA or the Owner responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or improper use.

Authority for Requiring Applicant's/Tenant's Consent to the Release of Information

Section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988, as amended by section 903 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992. This law is found at 42 U.S.C. 3544.

In part, this law requires you to sign a consent form authorizing the Owner to request current or previous employers to verify salary and wage information pertinent to your eligibility or level of benefits.

In addition, HUD regulations (24 CFR 813.109(b), Verification) require as a condition of receiving housing assistance that you must sign a HUD-approved release and consent authorizing any depository or private source of income to furnish such information that is necessary in determining your eligibility or level of benefits. This includes information that you have provided which will affect the amount of rent you pay. The information includes income and assets, such as salary, welfare benefits, and interest earned on savings accounts. They also include certain adjustments to your income, such as the allowances for dependents and for households whose heads or spouses are elderly handicapped, or disabled; and allowances for child care expenses, medical expenses, and handicap assistance expenses.

Purpose of Requiring Consent to the Release of Information

In signing this consent form, you are authorizing the Owner of the housing project to which you are applying for assistance to request information from a third party about you. HUD requires the housing owner to verify all of the information you provide that affect your eligibility and level of benefits to ensure that you are eligible for assisted housing benefits and that these benefits are set at the correct level. Upon the request of the HUD office or the PHA (as Contract Administrator) the housing Owner may provide HUD or the PHA with the information you have submitted and the information the Owner receives under this consent.

Uses of Information to be Obtained

The individual listed on the verification form may request and receive the information requested by the verification, subject to the limitations of this form. HUD is required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The PHA and the Owner are also required to protect the income information they obtain in accordance with any applicable state privacy law. Should the Owner receive information from a third party that is inconsistent with the information you have provided, the Owner is required to notify you in writing identifying the information believed to be incorrect. If this should occur, you will have the opportunity to meet with the Owner to discuss any discrepancies.

Who Must Sign the Consent Form

Each member of your household who is 18 years of age or older must sign the relevant consent forms at the initial certification, at each recertification and at each interim certification, if applicable. In addition, when new adult members join the household and when members of the household become 18 years of age they must also sign the relevant consent forms.

Persons who apply for or receive assistance under the following programs must sign the relevant consent forms:

Rental Assistance Program (RAP)

Rent Supplement

Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Programs (administered by the Office of Housing)

Section 202

Sections 202 and 811 PRAC

Section 202/162 PAC

Section 221(d)(3) Below Market Interest Rate

Section 236

HOPE 2 Home Ownership of Multifamily Units

Failure to Sign the Consent Form

Failure to sign any required consent form may result in the denial of assistance or termination of assisted housing benefits. If an applicant is denied assistance for this reason, the Owner must follow the notification procedures in Handbook 4350.3. If a tenant is denied assistance for this reason, the Owner must follow the procedures set out in the lease which require that the tenant pay the higher, HUD-approved market rent for the unit for failure to provide recertification information.

Conditions

No action can be taken to terminate, deny, suspend or reduce the assistance your household receives based on information obtained about you under this consent until the owner has independently 1) verified the information you have provided with respect to your eligibility and level of benefits and 2) with respect to income (including both earned and unearned income), the Owner has verified whether you have actually have (or had) access to such income for your own use, and verified the period or periods when, or with respect to which you actually received such income, wages, or benefits.

A photocopy of the signed consent may be used to request the information authorized by your signature on the individual consent forms. This would occur if the Owner does not have another individual verification consent with an original signature and the Owner is required to send out another request for verification (for example, the third party fails to respond). If this happens, the Owner may attach a photocopy of this consent to a photocopy of the individual verification form that you sign. To avoid the use of photocopies, the Owner and the individual may agree to sign more than one consent for each type of verification that is needed.

The Owner shall inform you, or a third party which you designate, of the findings made on the basis of information verified under this consent and shall give you an opportunity to contest such findings in accordance with Handbook 4350.3.

The Owner must provide you with information obtained under this consent in accordance with State privacy laws.

If an adult member of the household, due to extenuating circumstances, is unable to sign the required forms on time, the Owner may document the file as to the reason for the delay and the specific plans to obtain the proper signature as soon as possible.

Individual consents to the release of information expire 15 months after they are signed. The Owner may use these individual consent forms during the 90 days preceding the certification period. The Owner may also use these forms during the certification period, but only in cases where the Owner receives information indicating that the information you have provided may be incorrect. Other uses are prohibited. The Owner may not make inquiries into information that is older than 12 months unless he/she has received inconsistent information and has reason to believe that the information that you have supplied is incorrect. If this occurs, the Owner may obtain information within the last 5 years when you have received assistance.

I have read this information on the purposes and uses of information that is verified and/or it has been explained to me and consent to the release of information for these purposes and uses.

Penalties for Misusing this Consent:

HUD, the PHA and any Owner (or any employee of HUD, the PHA or the Owner) may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper uses of information collected based on the consent form.

Use of the information collected based on the form HUD 9887-A is restricted to the purposes cited on the form HUD 9887-A. Any person who knowingly or willfully requests, obtains or discloses any information under false pretenses concerning an applicant or tenant may be subject to a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000.

Any applicant or tenant affected by negligent disclosure of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the officer or employee of HUD, the PHA or the Owner responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or improper use.

OWNER'S NOTICE NO. 1
FOR AN APPLICANT FAMILY

Dear (insert name of head of household):

Section 214 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980, as amended, prohibits the Secretary of HUD from making financial assistance available to persons other than United States citizens, nationals, or certain categories of eligible noncitizens in the following HUD programs:

- a. Public and Indian Housing Programs
- b. Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments programs
- c. Section 235 of the National Housing Act
- d. Section 236 of the National Housing Act
- e. Section 101/Rent Supplement Program

You have applied, or are applying for assistance under one of these programs; therefore, you are required to declare U.S. Citizenship or submit evidence of eligible immigration status for each of your family members for whom you are seeking housing assistance. To do this you should:

1. Complete a Family Summary Sheet, using the attached blank format (identified as Attachment 5) to list all family members who will reside in the assisted unit.
2. Have a Declaration Format (Attachment 7) completed by each family member (including yourself) who is listed on the Family Summary Sheet. If there are 10 people listed on the Family Summary Sheet, you should have 10 completed copies of the Declaration Format. The Declaration Format has easy-to-follow instructions and explains what, if any other forms and/or evidence must be submitted with each Declaration Format.
3. Submit the Family Summary Sheet, the Declaration Formats and any other forms and/or evidence to the name and address listed below by (insert date - See Section 7.b. in Notice for guidance).

This Section 214 review will be completed in conjunction with the verification of other aspects of eligibility for assistance. If you have any questions or difficulty in completing the attached formats or determining the type of documentation required, please contact (insert name and telephone number). He/she will be happy to assist you.

Also, if you are unable to provide the required documentation by the date shown above, you should immediately contact this office and request an extension, using the block provided on the Declaration Format. Failure to provide this information or establish eligible status may result in your not being considered for housing assistance.

If this Section 214 review results in a determination of ineligibility, you will have an opportunity to appeal the decision. Also, if the final determination concludes that only certain members of your family are eligible for assistance, your family may be eligible for proration of assistance. That means that when assistance is available, a reduced amount may be provided for your family, based on the number of members who are eligible.

If assistance becomes available and the other aspects of your eligibility review show that you are eligible for housing assistance, it may be provided to you prior to the final determination of this Section 214 review, depending on how far the review has progressed and the information that is available at that point. You will be contacted as soon as we have further information regarding your eligibility for assistance.
