DAVID J. HEDISON Executive Director DEREK JONES
Property Manager

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the Federally-Funded Supportive Low Income Housing for seniors aged 62 years and older. The Chelmsford Housing Authority and Elder Services of Merrimack Valley, Inc., partnered to create both developments, with the Chelmsford Housing Authority acting as the management agent for both developments.

The Village at Mystery Spring development is located at 67 Tadmuck Road in Westford, and serves 36 or more seniors.

The North Village development is located at 20 Sheila Avenue in North Chelmsford, and serves 50 or more seniors.

Both developments are smoke-free facilities. In order to be eligible to apply, both members of the household must be at least 62 years old.

You may apply to one or both locations by completing the attached application. Please be certain to complete and sign the application, as incomplete applications will not be processed. Completed applications should be mailed or faxed to:

The Chelmsford Housing Authority 10 Wilson Street, Chelmsford, MA 01824 FAX 978-256-1895

FAX 978-256-1895 TTY (800) 439-0183 TDD (800) 439-2370

(Please note: All faxed applications must be followed with receipt of original to this office.)

FAIR INFORMATION ACT – STATEMENT OF RIGHTS

Local Housing Authorities collect information about applicants and tenants for their housing programs as required by law in order to determine eligibility, amount of rent, and correct apartment size. The information collected is used to manage the housing programs, to protect the public's financial interest, and to verify the accuracy of information submitted. Where permitted by law, it may be released to government agencies, other housing authorities, and to civil or criminal investigators and prosecutors. Otherwise, the information will be kept confidential and only used by housing authority staff in the course of their duties.

The Fair Information Practices Act established requirements governing housing authorities' use and disclosure of the information it collects. Applicants and tenants may give or withhold their permission when requested by the housing authority to provide information. However, failure to permit the housing authority to obtain the required information may result in delay, ineligibility for programs, or termination of tenancy or housing subsidy. The provision of false or incomplete information is a criminal offense punishable by fines and/or imprisonment.

As an applicant or tenant, you have the following rights in regards to the information collected about you:

- 1. No information may be used for any purpose other than those described above without your consent.
- 2. No information may be disclosed to any person other than those described above without your consent. If we receive a legal order to release the information, we will notify you.
- 3. You or your authorized representative has a right to inspect and copy any information collected about you.

FAIR INFORMATION ACT-STATEMENT OF RIGHTS

Local Housing Authorities collect information about applicants and tenants for their housing programs as required by law in order to determine eligibility, amount of rent, and correct apartment size. The information collected is used to manage the housing programs, to protect the public's financial interest, and to verify the accuracy of information submitted. Where permitted by law, it may be released to government agencies, other housing authorities, and to civil or criminal investigators and prosecutors. Otherwise, the information will be kept confidential and only used by housing authority staff in the course of their duties.

The Fair Information Practices Act established requirements governing housing authorities' use and disclosure of the information it collects. Applicants and tenants may give or withhold their permission when requested by the housing authority to provide information. However, failure to permit the housing authority to obtain the required information may result in delay, ineligibility for programs, or termination of tenancy or housing subsidy. The provision of false or incomplete information is a criminal offense punishable by fines and/or imprisonment.

As an applicant or tenant, you have the following rights in regards to the information collected about you:

- 1. No information may be used for any purpose other than those described above without your consent.
- 2. No information may be disclosed to any person other than those described above without your consent. If we receive a legal order to release the information, we will notify you.
- 3. You or your authorized representative has a right to inspect and copy any information collected about you.
- 4. You may ask questions and receive answers from the housing authority about how we collect and use your information.
- 5. You may object to the collection, maintenance, dissemination, use, accuracy, completeness, or type of information we hold about you. If you object, we will investigate your objection and will either correct the problem or make your objection part of the file. If you are dissatisfied, you may appeal to the Executive Director who will notify you in writing of the decision and of your right to appeal to the Department of Housing and Community Development.

I have read and understand this Fair Information Practices Statement of Rights and have received a copy for future reference. This form must be signed, dated and mailed with your application to each authority where you apply for housing.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
