Notice of Right to Reasonable Accommodation

If you have a disability and you need:

1. A change in the rules or policies or how we do things that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site;
2. A change or repair in your apartment or a special type of apartment that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site;
3. A change or repair to some other part of the housing site that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in the programs on site; or
4. A change in the way we communicate with you or give you information;

you can ask for this kind of change, which is called a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION.

If you can show that you have a disability and if your request is reasonable, if it is not too difficult to arrange, we will try to make the changes you request.

We will give you an answer in thirty days unless there is a problem getting the information we need or unless you agree to a longer time. We will let you know if we need more information or verification from you or if we would like to talk to you about other ways to meet your needs.

If we turn down your request, we will explain the reasons and you can give us more information if you think that will help.

If you need help filling out the reasonable accommodation request form, or if you want to give us your request some other way, we will assist you.

You can get a reasonable accommodation request form at the management office.
