

To apply to this lottery, you need only get on the Boston Homeless Set Aside Program Waitlist, which is maintained by Homestart.org

Use the link below to get on the list, or to ascertain if you are already on this list.

If you have a voucher or make a good income, you should not use this approach - instead, you apply to the affordable units using whatever is the standard application approach - most likely you can download that application from HousingWorks, just as you did this one!
